PRESIDENT LEWIS CRITICIZED BY MINERS ON FLOOR

Declare He Transcended His Authority in Illinois Strike Situation.

Referendum Settled Compromise Proposed.

THOOP'S GUARD AT COLUMBUS.

Indianapolis, Aug. 18.—Vice-President Hayes, of the United Mine Workers, criticized President Lewis' attitude toward the Illinois miners in a speech today. Hayes said that Lewis had no authority to accept a compromise with the Illinois operators, and then, after consulting the operators, submit the compromise to a referendum vote. He urged the convention to endorse the Illinois strike. John Mitchell also told the delegates that the Illinois strike deserves financial support.

Soldiers on Guard.

Columbus, O., Aug. 18.—Following action on part of Columbus Railway and Light company, today, in rejecting the offer of the city council to act as an arbitration board in settling the street car strike, Governor Harmon and Charles J. Pritman, president of the chamber of commerce tonight inaugurated new peace efforts. No information concerning the governor's plans was to be obtained, although he said it was along new lines. Pritman tomorrow will seek to get a formal offer from the company to re-negotiate its old trip with an advance in pay to 25 cents an hour and with no recognition of the union.

Mayor Marshall again last night refused to be responsible for the operation after dark, and the company continued the policy adopted last night of putting armed detectives on the cars.

The company has a force of over 200 men for this and other similar purposes. General Manager Stewart says he has determined to run cars regularly and to put company guards on them.

It is not believed that the mayor will consent to police riding the cars. Sheriff Sartain has raised a force of 120 special deputies some of whom are business men serving without pay.

Manager Stewart tonight sent a letter of criticism to the mayor demanding that the police cease "loitering with crime." He declared the force was "notoriously inefficient in its duty to disperse mobs and prosecute criminals."

Robert Mitchell 33, a piano sales man, died today from a fractured skull sustained when he was hit by a truck while riding on a car last Sunday. Mitchell said nothing about his injury until Monday morning, and then referred to it as of no consequence. An hour later he fell unconscious on the street. He did not regain consciousness, and the officials have no details of the assault.

Military authorities are preparing to hold troops here indefinitely.

It leaked out today that Governor Harmon had recommended the dismissal of Chief of Police Carter, but when Mayor Marshall demurred, Harmon and even went to the point of declaring that he would rather resign himself than remove his chief.

CROPS OF MONTGOMERY SHOWING NEED OF RAIN

Marksville, Tenn., Aug. 18.—The crops are beginning to show the need of rain, both corn, tobacco and potatoes. Though much of the early corn and tobacco is too far advanced to be materially injured it would be better with another rain. Watermelons and cucumbers are plentiful and on every corner may be seen wagons heavily loaded with them.

Will Go Back to Asylum.

Lee B. Worth, 34 years old, of the Woodville neighborhood was adjudged a lunatic by a jury in County Judge Allen Barkley's court this morning and ordered taken to the asylum for the insane at Hopkinsville. An attendant will arrive this evening and he will be taken there again for treatment early tomorrow morning. B. Worth has been unbalanced several years and only recently was dismissed from the asylum.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 18.—President W. G. Lee, of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, today announced the terms of the Pennsylvania railroad wage adjustment. The daily and mileage rates have been raised to the New York Central and Baltimore and Ohio schedule, wherever lower than the rate obtainable on those lines, and maintained where otherwise higher.

Nick Longworth Opposes Cannon After Interview With President Taft at Beverly, Massachusetts

Roosevelt Starts on His Western Trip Next Week—Rumors of Break With Taft Discredited.

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 18.—Following political conferences here during the past few days, today came the announcement from Congressman Longworth, of Ohio, that he would oppose Speaker Cannon's re-election. He said: "I shall do so in a manner I consider proper, and effective for the settlement of party differences in the Republican caucus."

This was taken as evidence, that President Taft is throwing his influence toward eliminating Speaker Cannon from the political situation. Longworth is an administration man.

At a conference this morning between Longworth, President Taft and Vice President Sherman, Longworth declared it to be his belief that Cannon would not be re-elected and this belief had been strengthened since the close of the last session by what he has heard from Cannon's former supporters. Longworth said he made the announcement on his own responsibility and at the suggestion of no one.

Roosevelt Ready for Start.

Oyster Bay, Aug. 18.—Roosevelt got back into the active political game. Four days hence he starts on his first speech making tour. The colonel held conferences with several of his lieutenants today but all information in regard to them was withheld.

William Loeb went into a conference with Theodore Roosevelt this afternoon.

Honor of Breach.

Washington, Aug. 18.—Reports that Roosevelt had broken with President Taft muddled the political atmosphere in Washington today. The assertion is made by three New York newspaper correspondents. Vice President Sherman remarked that his selection as temporary chairman of the New York convention was a victory for the administration. This is regarded as tantamount to a declaration of hostility on his part. It does not connect the president. The fact that Congressman Murdoch is known to have consulted Roosevelt on the text of his Ocasawatomie, Kansas, speech August 31, seems to give grounds for the prediction that the colonel will make his first public profession at that time.

Not Known at Beverly

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 18.—If there was any break between President Taft and Roosevelt it is visible only from the New York end. The rumors that such a break has occurred created interest here, but no statement was forthcoming. Secretary Norton refused to be interviewed, but laid all dispatches aside for the president's perusal.

First Bales in South Alabama.

Mobile, Ala., Aug. 18.—First bales of cotton from points in south Alabama are reported as follows: Stewart Brothers, of Bay Minette, brought a bale to the Farmers' Gin company, but owing to a breakdown it was not ginned until today. Yesterday Alfred Bates, a negro, had his first bale ginned in Mobile. The cotton was raised at Prichard, a suburb of this city. Incidentally, it was the first bale of cotton ever ginned in the northern limits of Mobile. The first bale was brought to a local firm and later sent to Mobile Tuesday, where it was auctioned for 18½ cents per pound.

He was held in jail until this afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, when he was given a ticket to his home in Murray, Ky., over the N. C. & St. L. railroad. A ticket was forwarded here this morning by his mother, Mrs. Matilda Irvan, and he was accompanied to the train.

Mistfortune Attends Second Day's Flight of Yankee Aeronaut After Crossing Channel With Passenger

Machinery Breaks and He and Mechanician Have Hard Jolt—Emperor Franz
Josel's Birthday.

London, Aug. 18.—John Moissant met with two mishaps today in his attempt to finish the last leg of his London to Paris aeroplane flight. He left Tilmanstone, accompanied by Alfred Sileux, his mechanic, at 5:05 this morning. At 7 a. m. near Slippingbourne, he was forced to descend on account of engine trouble. He re-ascended at 8 a. m., but at Upchurch one of the stays broke, fouling the engine. In alighting in an unused brickyard, the propeller was broken. Moissant wired to Paris for the defective parts, which may arrive tomorrow. Both men were shaken up by their abrupt landing. Moissant is the hero of the hour in England. He asserted he could not claim the £25,000 prize offered by the London Mail, as he aviated for the sport. But, if the prize was offered him he would not refuse it.

HER AND SHE FALLS DOWN ON FIFTH STREET.

While she was on her way home at noon today, Miss Hilbert, of 516 North Fifth street, was chased by a bull, which was crazed with the heat, at the corner of Fifth and Monroe streets. The animal was being led by a young man and when it neared the corner it began plunging, and breaking the rope, it charged at the young lady. She fell and before assistance arrived she was almost in an unconscious condition and was carried into the home of Mrs. Georgia Beyer, at Fifth and Monroe streets.

Wells was not cut in the fight but his face was badly discolored.

SERIOUS CHARGE AGAINST WHITE MAN IN CARLISLE

Charles Patrick Arrested For Misconduct Toward Little Girl.

Evidence Against Him Not Strong.

ARREST IN SMITHLAND CASE.

Arlington, Ky., Aug. 18.—An attempted assault was made on the little 8-year-old daughter of Joe Bodkin at Berkley, Ky., Tuesday morning and Charles Patrick, a white man about 30 years old, is under arrest accused of the crime. According to the affidavit made by the little girl a man whom she did not know was in Leon's store at Berkley when she and her brother, aged 12, went in to buy some goods. The man caught her and fondled with her in the store. Then he bought some candy and gave it to her. She and her brother started home, which is a short distance up the railroad north of Berkley. However, the children started along the dirt road, but were overtaken by the man, who persuaded them to cross on to the railroad with him. After they had followed the railroad a short distance the little girl states that the man caught her and tore a portion of her clothing off, the boy in the meantime threatening to throw rocks and doing all he could to assist his little sister. While her assailant was watching the boy she managed to break away and ran home and reported to her parents at once. Efforts were made to apprehend the man.

Charles Patrick, of this place, who is said to have been with a fishing party on the lakes near Berkley, was arrested accused of the crime. He has always borne a good reputation, never having been connected with any crime. He is married and his family live here. He was taken to Bardwell for trial. He gave bond and is believed to be innocent.

Several days ago Judge Blair received a note stating that he should leave $500 at a certain branch on the railroad which was designated or he would lose five times that amount or perhaps his life. In order to find out who the extortioners were, in company with some friends, Judge Blair boarded a train and dropped the money from the train at the designated place. In the meantime his friends had stationed themselves nearby.

Shot Brice's Wife.

Hickman, Ky., Aug. 18.—In attempting to shoot Edgar Brice, Will Johnson accidentally shot Mr. Brice's wife through the breast and lung, wounding her seriously, at Brice's home, a few miles west of town. Earlier in the day Brice and Johnson had had a difficulty, and came to blows, and Brice whipped Johnson. Late in the afternoon, Johnson, armed with a pistol, came by Brice's house, and seeing him out in the yard playing with his children, began firing on him. Mrs. Brice, who was in the rear of the house, heard the noise and came running out into the yard to see what was the matter, when she received a bullet in the chest. The wound is serious, but is not thought to be fatal. Johnson fired five times at Brice. Immediately afterward Johnson phoned to the sheriff and gave up.

COMES TO END

SECTION HANDS' STRIKE OF ILLINOIS CENTRAL.

Reports Sent Out from Central That the Tremble is Over.

The section men of the I. C. of Central City went to work again last Monday and the strike along this line is at an end. It lasted about three weeks and the railroad company could not successfully fill the places of the strikers, although doctored were well scattered along the line from Paducah to Louisville. The men have been promised an increase in wages at an early date. Supt. C. H. Adams, the men are poorly paid and shall have increase. I saw that if the men had made a demand in accordance with the rule, trouble easily could have been avoided. Two carloads of Italian were brought up the line to New Branch the next day. They were warned not to attempt work at night some dynamite was exploded, blowing the Italians to the woods and out of the country—Argus.

city. A recent department bulletin opened the campaign with the following:

"A good many people who lead careful lives at home get reckless when they go away. They will drink any kind of water; will stand for dirty milk; will tolerate flies. It is vacation and 'anything goes.'"

A later bulletin contained such warnings as:

"Don't locate until you know that the water is good.

"If there has been typhoid fever in the place, make them prove that thinks are different now.

"Don't stay in a fly-ridden place; flies mean filth. You cannot see germs but you can see flies, and the significance of one is much the same as the other. .

"There are some resort towns with good water, good sewerage, good garbage collection—encourage them. There are others which do not make life safe—avoid them."

But still more effective is the offer to supply information about given localities. Co-operation was established, for example, with the Michigan state board of health, which furnished the Chicago department with a sanitary report on 31 resort towns and the list was printed in a bulletin. This meant a service not only to Chicagoans, but also to Michigan in encouraging places which protect health and stimulating those with lax standards to improve them.—The Survey.

GRISCOM WILL USE ROOSEVELT

SAYS HE WILL GO BEFORE PRIMARIES AND CONVENTION.
Roosevelt Refuses to Add to State, ment—Does Not Say Whether He Will Lead Progressive.

SHERMAN CALLS ON TAFT

New York, Aug. 18.—There was marked calm over the troubled waters of the Republican political scene, following the storm when the "old guard" in the state committee would shape themselves during the name for temporary chairman of the coming state convention. No one was prepared to say how things would shape themselves during the days intervening between now and the state convention, when the delegates will finally determine who shall be chosen.

New York County Chairman Griscom, who presented Colonel Roosevelt's name to the committee, says the fight will be carried to the primaries and to the convention.

That Col. Roosevelt intends, as a delegate to the state convention from Nassau county, to use a progressive platform and candidate for governor, is clearly indicated, politicians say this morning. In that portion of the colonel's statement issued last night which says that a speech by him "would be of such character that it might help if the convention nominated the right kind of a man on a clean cut progressive platform, but that it would hurt if either the right kind of a man were nominated nor the right kind of a platform adopted."

Roosevelt Silent

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 18.—Ex-President Roosevelt refused to add anything to his statement concerning the refusal of the Republican state committee to recommend him for the temporary chairmanship of the Saratoga state convention. He was not willing to say whether he would take any steps to lead the progressives, with whom he virtually enrolled himself yesterday in their fight to obtain control of the state committee. The impression here is that Col. Roosevelt will make a more vigorous fight than ever for a platform which will meet his views.

Col. Roosevelt made it clear today that under no circumstances would he allow his name to be presented to the convention as a candidate for the governorship nomination.

of making a flight in Clifford H. Harrison's airplane, Friday. He will not go to Hempstead to witness the aviation flights.

HITCHCOCK TO 'SEE' FOR TAFT

Postmaster General to Look Over Political Situation in West.

Washington, Aug. 17.—Postmaster General Frank H. Hitchcock will leave in a few days for a trip through the western part of the United States to study the political outlook in the doubtful territory for President Taft. The news comes on top of his return from Nevada, where he had several long conferences with the president, and tends to kill the rumor that Mr. Hitchcock has been succeeded as the chief political advisor of the administration by Senator Murray Crane, of Massachusetts, who is now "sipping" in the west. Mr. Hitchcock's trip will extend to the Pacific coast. He refused to discuss his proposed trip except to say that he expects to "find a better condition of affairs for the Republican party than some pessimists seem to think exists." Mr. Hitchcock, however, is not too optimistic. He believes there are plenty of vineyards where the political gardener may get in some good work.

Mr. Hitchcock will meet President Taft in this city about Sept. 10 at a cabinet meeting to be held after his return from the national conservation congress to be held in St. Paul Sept. 6-9.

Acute or Chronic—Which?

No matter if your kidney trouble is acute or chronic Foley's Kidney Remedy will reach your case. Mr. Claude Brown, Reynoldsville, Ill., writes us that he suffered many months with kidney complaint which baffled all treatment. At last he tried Foley's Kidney Remedy and a few large bottles effected a complete cure. He says, "It has been of inestimable value to me." Gilbert's Drug Store.

SHIP BUILDERS STRIKE.

All of German Yards Tied Up By Labor Troubles.

Berlin, Aug. 17.—As a result of the fight between the German shipbuilders and their employees, all the shipyards of Germany, except government works are now idle, so far as new construction is concerned. Naval construction assigned by the government to private yards is at a standstill, and ship owners are in many cases sending their ships to England for necessary repairs, naturally undertaken in home ports.

The men demand an increase of 10 per cent in wages and a 55-hour week. The shipbuilders maintain that these economic demands are a cloak to political purposes and cannot be granted.

Sympathetic strikes of the men employed by allied trades are now being organized. At Hamburg 3,611 metal workers have gone on strike.

Tanning snake skins for the manufacture of women's belts has become a lucrative industry in Madras.

STATE CROPS

FAVORABLE REPORT ON WHEAT AND CORN.

General Condition of Tobacco Is Not Satisfactory, According to Commissioner's Statement.

Commissioner Rankins, of the Kentucky department of agriculture, has been making an effort to compile the acreage of the principal crops in the state, but the reports he has received are too scattering and indefinite to make an estimate possible.

In more than 50 counties from which crop reports have been received there is no special note of discouragement, except with regard to tobacco. Most of the counties say that the condition of tobacco is not good. A few report favorably with reference to all growing crops. Fruit, it seems, is more abundant than anyone had reason to expect after the storms and severe weather that prevailed last spring. The county reports vary greatly and the estimates range anywhere from 25 per cent to 95 per cent of the normal production. Most of them, however, are nearer 25 per cent than 95.

Taken as a whole, the reports as to corn and wheat are favorable. Heavy rains, in some places amounting to cloud bursts, have caused much damage to all crops, but wheat is turning out better than was anticipated at the beginning of the harvest and condition of corn in most of the counties is reported good. The returns as to oats range from medium to good and the same may be said of potatoes.

While the report of the commissioners do not cover half the counties in the state, and while some of them are disappointingly meager in detail their general trend is not unfavorable. There seems to be nothing in the present situation to cause Kentucky farmers to throw up their hands in despair over a possible shortage in the staple crops. It must be remembered that crops are wonderfully recuperative.

$10,000,000,000 MERGER TALK

Two Fraternal Insurance Bodies Discuss Project at Detroit.

Detroit, Aug. 17.—A plan is on foot among the delegates of the National Fraternal congress in session here, to merge with the Associated Fraternities of America, which will meet in Atlantic City August 22. The two bodies represent total insurance estimated at $10,000,000,000. The main difference between them is the matter of rates, the "adequate rate" and the "current cost rate."

President Thomas H. Cannon of Chicago says that there is really but little difference between the two bodies, and that if an agreement could be reached on the rate question the merger might result.

McKINLEY'S KIN GETS PROPERTY

Sister-in-Law of Late President Wins In Fight for Canton Estate.

Canton, Ohio, Aug. 17.—By a court decision today Mrs. M. C. Barber, sister of the late widow of President McKinley, was given title to one-half of the property known as the McKinley Block in Canton valued at $45,000. James McKinley, a nephew of President McKinley, and other heirs-at-law of the late execulive, brought suit to get possession of the property, but the court held that the title of Mrs. Barber is valid and that the property belongs to her.

The HOTPOINT was awarded the GRAND PRIZE at Seattle Exposition. It is GUARANTEED TWO YEARS, hardy, sturdy and sufficient. The HOTPOINT ELECTRIC IRON cuts out the drudgery of working—it's simple and practical—the initial investment is small, operating expense is trivial and the saving of fuel soon pays for the iron.

The HOTPOINT IRON can be connected instantly to any electric light socket in the house. Then you begin to iron and iron continuously. No waiting, no bother, no running back and forth, no lighting the iron on light work, the heat stored in the iron being sufficient, and the current can be cut off.

Daily Thought.

Hardship is the native soil of manhood and self-reliance.—Neal.

Let us understand one another.

We can believe the report of those heart shaped sun spots. It seems to have a cozy corner there for us.

Nothing else equals the magnanimous air with which a man admits that a public official of the opposite party may be honest.

One way to maintain peace in Central America would be to quit sending soldiers, arms and ammunition from this country.

Chicago claims a large percentage of gain in the last decade. "Wide is the gate and broad is the way, and many there be which go in theret."

A Mexican froze to death in a refrigerator car in Texas when the thermometer registered 105. We always suspected those Texans of importing their best climates.

"If the good people would just stand shoulder to shoulder in this age

all reforms would be possible," remarked a speaker recently. If, in other words, the good people would just be good, it would give the rest of us a chance to be good, too.

Henry Clews is already feeling symptoms of industrial unsettlement, born of a fear that a change in congress this fall may cause tariff tinkering.

The farmer with his dollar

wheat, 65 cent corn and nine dollar hogs doesn't want a change; and if jobbing houses, in anticipation of a general tariff reduction and consequent lowering of prices by reason of cheap imports, hold up orders to American factories, manufacturers and workmen will join the farmer.

THE MEAT AND MILK SUPPLY.

On the principle that the "last shall be first," Frankfurt, which has been suffering an epidemic of typhoid fever, is about to establish a central abattoir and milk distributing depot that will give her a lead over the other Kentucky cities in the matter of health.

That is the only practical way of making certain the purity of the meat and milk supply. Occasional tests made at a bacteriological laboratory would ascertain the quality of the product examined at that particular time, provided we had confidence in the bacteriologist; but the distribution through a central depot would insure purity every day of the milk we consume.

If butchers and dairymen would combine on these projects, those who go in would be assured of a monopoly of the business and those who refuse to join in it would be eliminated from the trade. It is a good business proposition for the dairymen and butchers as well as a sanitary measure that soon will become compulsory.

WILL THE INSURGENTS SWAL-

LOW THE DEMOCRATS?

A few days ago we took occasion to say that of all odd political alliances, the endorsement of Republican insurgents by free trade Democrats was the most curious.

The reason the insurgents are pronounced protectionists, and propose to eliminate the tariff from politics

by the appointment of a commission to secure data on the cost of production, and recommend changes of schedules to congress from time to time as the conditions warrant. That would forever establish protection as the American policy. Then the insurgents are extreme federalists and believe, not only in the postal savings bank conducted by the national government, but in the extension of federal authority over many other enterprises, now regulated by the states. Democratic endorsement of these policies would leave the party not a single feature of its traditional tenets to make a campaign with, and would amount to the practical absorption of the Democratic party by the Insurgents.

How timely our observation was is indicated by the statement of former

Governor Folk, of Missouri who said

recently:

"I have been in most of the western states in the last few weeks, and found everywhere numbers of Democrats were joining the Insurgents in the Republican party. Right here is the danger of the Democratic organization and the sooner this fact is recognized the better. This movement toward the insurgent element is not confined to one state, but Oregon, California and Washington I heard the same story."

Insurgent success at Republican primaries, if the insurgent policies are entirely popular and correct, does not mean the disruption of the Republican party, but its continuance in power. Whenever the Insurgents have wrested control of the party organization from the old-time politicians, Insurgent, and therefore,

Republican, success is assured with the support and co-operation of Democratic voters. Insurgent victory then can mean nothing more than a new lease of life to the Republican party, and yet, the Democratic press is backing up the magazines, which have conducted much to the unrest and dissatisfaction that made the insurgent cause popular.

The break made by Mr. Gileson

in New York of presenting the name of Roosevelt before the Republican state committee only to have it discarded for the temporary chairmanship of the state convention, may arouse the colonel's fighting blood and precipitate a fight in that state which will result in an insurgent victory there. President Taft may be expected to take the Roosevelt end of that scrap. If he does, that may force the national administration into the insurgent leadership and then short work will be made of Cannonism.

The national Republican party is pledged to a policy of federalism,

and we have predicted that the next campaign will be waged on the issue between state and national authority;

but if the Democratic papers and politicians insist on taking sides with the most popular element of the Republican party just now, they will be in so deep by that time, that their own words will be used against them.

LINING UP FOR HOOPER

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 18.—The News-Scimitar says editorially:

"The News-Scimitar has vigorously opposed Mr. Patterson for five years. It has for as long opposed what is known as state-wide protection; that is, that character of temperance legislation, or temperance legislation, that would enforce the views of the people of one part of the state on the people of a large community in another part in the matter of the private life of the citizen against the overwhelming sentiment of the people of such community coerced, or attempted to be coerced. These two things it has stood against. It has, as well, stood for progressive economic legislation in the matter of taxation and control of the quasi-public corporations or privileged interests of the state, as well as for other important economic reforms. It sees no reason, nor has seen any arguments that impressed it for changing its attitude either way. It does not intend to quarrel with its friends on any side who differ with it. It will respect their opinions, at the same time stating its own.

Intoxicated Auditors Gave First Cue to Liquor.

Americus, Ga., Aug. 17.—While a revival was in progress at a large Baptist church located in the suburbs of Americus, officers raided the church yard and found a "blind tiger" doing a thriving business.

The "tiger" was located in a secluded corner of the church yard and contained four cases of whiskey and half dozen cases of beer. Several persons had become intoxicated during the revival and this led to detection of the "tiger." It is said that the "tiger" had been doing a rushing business from the very beginning of the revival.

The officers made the raid while the revivalist was preaching against the illegal sale of whiskey.

State house sold 31 barley at $12 @ 18.75; one rejection.
Kentucky house sold 15 barley at $11.75 @ 16.50, 22 dark at $5.90 @ 9.50.
Ninth street house sold 24 dark at $5.65 @ 11, with 5 rejections.
Dark house sold 32 dark at $6 to $11, with 2 rejections.

Cincinnati tobacco offerings 25 hogheads of which 7 hogheads were old and 18 new. Quality good; market strong. High price $19.75 per 100 lbs.

LIVESTOCK.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 18.—The receipts of hogs were 928 head; for the three days this week 1,762, as against 2,955 for the same days last week, 6,051 for the same days last year and 5,061 for a corresponding period two years ago. The market opened early with steady prices prevailing; selected, 200 lbs. and up $9.65; 165 to 200 lbs. $9; 90 to 165 lbs. $8.16; light pigs $8 @ 9.15; roughs $7.80 down. The pens were well cleared and the market closed about steady. It can be seen from comparative receipts that the supply of hogs on the local market is far below normal, which indicates that there is still a big shortage of hogs in the territory tributary to this market.

Cattle.

The receipts of cattle today were only 72 head; for the three days this week, 1,659. While the supply on sale was a scant one, the demand was lighter than usual, the buying crowd small and indifferent, but few cattle wanted, and not much doing in any department. The trade generally was dull and druggy and there is a downward tendency to prices. Choice butcher cattle and handy weights were the best sellers, yet they were not at all active prices barely steady to a shade lower; medium and inferior kinds were a slow drag, with prices off 10 @ 15c, as compared with Monday. The grassy kinds of steers 900 to 1,100 lbs. are more neglected than any other class, and harder to sell at anything like what they are worth. Feeder and stocker trade quiet, the best steady. Bulls slow; canners and cutters dull. Milch cow trade slow. No prime heavy cattle on sale; feeling rather easy to shade lower. The pens were fairly well cleared, by reason of the light supply, but the market closed dull.

Calves.

Receipts, 165, for the three days 416. The market ruled steady, best 7 @ 7 1/2c, some fancy light calves higher, medium 6 @ 7c, common 2 1/2 @ 6c. Heavy calves are very dull, buyers won't pay top prices for them even if they are of choice quality.

Sheep and Lambs.

Receipts 4,476, for the three days this week 12,283 as against 15,572 for the same days last week, 6,051 for the same days last year, and 5,601 for a corresponding period two years ago. The lamb market opened slow and 25c lower on top lambs and seconds, the bulk of the best lambs 6 @ 6 1/2c, culls 3 @ 4c, fat sheep 2 1/2 @ 4c down, common sheep very dull. Good active demand for prime stock ewes, plain and common ewes slow. St. Louis—Cattle—Receipts 5,400, including 2,000 Texans; market was strong. Native beef steers $5.75 @ 8.20; cows and heifers $3.50 @ 5.50; stockers and feeders $3.25 @ 5.50; Texas and Indian steers $1.25 @ 6.50; cows and heifers $3.50 @ 6; calves in carload lots $5.50 @ 7.75. Hogs—Receipts 5,500; market steady. Pigs and lights $8 @ 9.40; packers $7.75 @ 9; butchers and best heavy $8 @ 9.85. Sheep—Receipts 5,000; market steady. Native muttons $1 @ 4.25; lambs $6 @ 6.75.

While figures won't lie, the trouble seems to be that we don't all figure alike.

Interesting Reading for Tubercular Invalids

Eckman Mfg. Co.'s Booklet of Cured Cases Part of the Anti-Tuberculosis Crusade.

The makers of Eckman's Alternative—the medicine that is curing tuberculars all over the country—have distributed with drug stores or will send direct, a pamphlet that every consumptive should read. It tells in their own language the true story of those whom Eckman's Alternative has cured.

Many medical booklets sign their testimonials with initials, or give the city or State, and not the street address. The Booklet of Cured Cases is honest and sincere. It gives the full name, address (street, city and State), also the date. We urge you to write or call on these people and hear their story direct.

Such straight-forward heart evidence as this booklet holds is convincing, indeed. We offer proof—we do not want you to doubt the medicine until you have secured the booklet—it's free—and communicated with those whose grateful letters alone have made possible the publishing of this booklet.

No matter if you have unfortunately spent time and money experimenting with nearly every "cure" under the sun, investigate Eckman's Alternative. It shows the heart-touching affliction of a father whose only son was cured of tuberculosis by Eckman's Alternative after all hope had been abandoned. Would it not carry some weight with you?

Eckman's Alternative is good for all throat and lung troubles, and is on sale in Paducah by List Drug Co. and other druggists. It can also be obtained at the medical office of Dr. J. C. Jones. Ask for Booklet of Cured Cases or write for Evidence to the Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa.

NEW RATE LAW

NO FORMAL STATEMENT WILL BE ISSUED BY COMMISSION.

It will be taken for granted that Provisions of Law are Well Understood.

Washington, Aug. 18.—At midnight last night the new railroad law became effective. Immediately upon the passage of the act 60 days ago sections of the law relating to the suspension of rates went into effect. Since that time the interstate commerce commission has been operating under the law.

It is not the intention of the commission to take formal notice of the effectiveness of the law by the issuance now or at any future time of a formal statement concerning its provisions. All of them are assumed by the commission to be well understood.

A conference was held by the commission with representatives of the telegraph and telephone companies concerning the law as it applies to them. The companies expressed a desire to do all in their power to facilitate the work of the commission, so far as it might relate to them. Hereafter, under the law, the telegraph and telephone companies will have to file reports with the commission concerning their business, just as the railroads now do.

The officers were informed also that after today no franks for messages could legally be issued except as governed by the anti-pass provision of the Hepburn act. After today, therefore, the issuance and use of telegraph and telephone franks are barred by the statute.

The long and short haul provisions of the recently enacted law, while it becomes effective at once, actually will not be operated for six months, as that time is allowed for the carriers to adjust with the commission the tariffs with respect to that provision.

No announcement yet has been made by President Taft of appointments to the commerce court or to the commission to make investigations under the new law.

It is scarcely likely that the commerce court will be in operation before some time early in the coming year.

JOINS THE INDEPENDENTS.

Fritz Scheff Signs Contract With the Schuberts.

Bristol, Tenn., Aug. 18.—The independent theatrical organization has secured Mme. Fritz Scheff, the comic opera star and former singer at the Metropolitan Grand opera house in New York. Mme. Scheff, who is in private life Mrs. John Fox, Jr., wife of the novelist, has just signed with the Schuberts, and thus the syndicate loses another one of its most popular stars.

Mr. and Mrs. Fox spent yesterday in Bristol playing golf on the Bristol links of the Country club and it was learned that she had gone over to the Independents. She has for several seasons been under the management of Charles Dillingham of the syndicate.

Mr. and Mrs. Fox spend their summers and leisure time in their bungalow near Bristol, Mr. Fox being a native of this section having lived here for many years. They visit Bristol once or more each week to play golf, shop, etc. Mrs. Fox is in splendid health and enjoying the exhilarating mountain climate of the south-west Virginia mountains outside of Bristol. Mr. Fox is deeply engaged in a new novel, but finds time to join her almost every day on the golf links.

It is probable that Mme. Scheff will open the coming season in a revival of "The Yum Yum Girl," a Japanese play that has made a great hit and which is especially suited to her. She played this a few weeks at the Casino, New York, at the close of last season, and it out, and made a great hit.

And a crank thinks he is the wisest man on earth to get along with.

INDIANS EMPLOY LEGAL COUNSEL

WITHOUT THEM THEY COULD NOT GET THEIR MONEY.

Commissioner of Indian Affairs Valentine Makes Up a List of Fees Paid Attorneys.

PAY THEM VERY LARGE FEES

Sulphur, Okla., Aug. 18.—In response to a request from Commissioner of Indian Affairs Valentine, the special congressional committee investigating Indian land affairs forwarded to Beverly, Mass., a statement covering the amount of attorneys' fees paid by the Indians. The statement was said to be for the use of President Taft. The statement covers a period of 20 years and embraces money paid out as contingent fees. It shows the total money so paid was $3,893,394.54. Among the largest fees was $789,000, paid by the Chickasaw Indians to recover $2,558,798. The New York Indians paid $248,543 to recover less than $2,000,000. The Eastern Cherokees paid a fee of $720,000. In some instances the fees paid were as high as 25 per cent of the property involved.

The request to the committee for the figures is taken as indicating that President Taft has decided to interest himself in the present investigation, which grew out of Senator T. P. Gore's charges of attempted bribery.

The contracts now held by J. F. McMurray call for a 10 per cent fee for the sale of $30,000,000 worth of land in this state. In presenting the figures before the committee, Representative Philip Campbell, of Kansas, said:

"It is rather a startling condition of affairs that such an amount of money was paid by the Indians to American lawyers, when the government itself is the guardian of the Indians."

Need Many Lawyers.
Indians have so much legal business they employ lawyers by the half dozen, according to Douglas H. Johnston, governor of the Chickasaw tribe of Indians, who testified before the congressional committee. Governor Johnston testified he was unable to state what service some of the lawyers were paid for. The lawyers were employed previous to the existence of the present contracts, which provide for the sale of $30,000,000 worth of land with a 10 per cent fee to Attorney J. F. McMurray.

Here are some of the expenditures which, according to Governor Johnston, were made by the Indians for legal services, most of the lawyers being employed simultaneously. Paid J. F. McMurray's law firm $5,000 a year, with $7,200 expenses; paid McMurray's firm another $5,000 a year at the same time on another contract; paid McMurray $750,000 as special fee in the citizenship cases, with an expense account of $300,000; paid four other attorneys an aggregate of $10,000 a year.

It was the belief, Governor Johnston testified, that without the employment of so many attorneys the Indians would have lost millions of dollars.

Governor Johnston testified that in the sale of Indian lands in Mississippi it had cost the government $6,000,000, to sell $2,000,000 worth of land.

In reply to questions put to him in a previous examination, in which he was asked to explain how he came to deposit $75,000 to his personal account after McMurray had been paid the $750,000 fee, Governor Johnston declared he never possessed $75,000.

From Sickness to "Excellent Health."
So says Mrs. Chas. Lyon, Peoria, Ill.: "I found in your Foley Kidney Pills a prompt and speedy cure for backache and kidney trouble which bothered me for many months. I am now enjoying excellent health which I owe to Foley Kidney Pills." Gilbert's Drug Store.

Monon Head Chosen.
New York, Aug. 18.—Fairfax Harrison, heretofore vice president of the Southern railway, was today elected president of the Chicago, Indianapolis & Louisville railway company, at a meeting of the board of directors of that company, called to fill the vacancy caused by the death of J. G. Rawn.

Mr. Wilson Barrett, of 324 Tennessee street, is ill of Carbuncles.

The International convention of transportmen in Copenhagen, Denmark, will open on August 20. It is expected to remain in session about one week.

Bad Breath

"For months I had great trouble with my stomach and used all kinds of medicines. My tongue has been actually as green as grass, my breath having a bad odor. Two weeks ago a friend recommended Cascarets and after using them I can willingly and cheerfully say that they have entirely cured me. I therefore let you know that I shall recommend them to anyone suffering from such troubles."—Chas. H. Halpern, 114 E. 7th St., New York, N. Y.

General Booth on His Critics.
It has been said that I am proud, haughty, and despotic, trampling upon the feelings of those placed under my guidance, says General

Booth in the September Strand. The critics, however, neglect to say how thousands of all nationalities and classes eagerly go to the uttermost parts of the earth at my bidding. It has been alleged that I live in grand style and am amassing a large fortune out of the gifts of poor and deluded people, that I live in a magnificent mansion and drive about in a costly motor-car, and never eat or drink except out of a silver dish with a golden spoon. I have never taken a dollar from the Salvation Army funds for my own personal support since its commencement, and have never gone out in loaned or hired motor when visiting poor lost people.

Perkins rarely laugh, so they consider it difficult to do so.

VIRGINIA OF THE AIR

By HERBERT QUICK

CHAPTER XIV.

LIFE OR DEATH?

A GAIN the life began its work. The immediate danger was over, but both the man and the girl in the car knew that the terrible consumption of gas in the engines made the seconds too precious for use in conversation. A minute's supply of gas, ten seconds' supply, one second's supply, might save their lives in the home stretch when the chain should be filed through and they should take their flight toward land, to make triumphant landing after this deadly peril or to sink in the waves from which they were now fighting to save themselves. The roar of the machinery filled the air with tempest; the wind from the wing blades driven down on the water set it boiling like a whirlpool; one moment the straining submarine drew them down by a link or two of the chain; the next the struggling airship lifted the submarine up an inch or so from her dark lair in the depths. At last, at the very height of the fierce struggle, the airship shot upward with the flange of dropping chains, a worn file fell into the foam of a white capped wave, and the girl leaped to the levers in obedience to the voice of Carson telling her to make haste, for God's sake, and set the wings for a forward flight, to cut the speed down one-third and to steer straight for shore.

She obeyed. They had risen to a height of perhaps 200 feet before her inexperienced hands could change the propellers, and Carson told her to keep the height. She asked if she might not use a little higher speed, but he said no—economy in gas was the moderate speed. "Keep her as she is," said he.

"Can you come up?" she asked.

"Have you the strength?"

She asked this two or three times and got no reply. Suddenly she screamed with the fear that he had fainted, and as if aroused from a stupor he asked her to advance the spark a little and when she had done so to retard it again.

"Are you in danger?" she asked.

"Can you hang on?"

"I'm all right," said he, "only my hands. Can you see shore? Is it far?"

The shore was rising fast, she told him. It was not so very far now, but the gas was almost gone. Could she do anything? Was there nothing to be done to take it out so as to bring them a little closer before they fell into the sea? Could he do anything if he were in the car?

"Keep her as she is," said he. "When we get close enough so she can glide in I'll lighten her."

"How lighter her?" she asked.

"It's easy," said he, "from down here. Keep her as she is!"

The dunes lifted white in the sun, shimmering in the heat, swelling as the Virginia darted nearer and nearer to shore. The horror stricken people on the beach saw her coming, like an albatross before a gale. The girl on the deck prayed fervently for the miraculous renewing of the little crust of oil from which was made the gas that kept them up, and the man underneath hung on grimly, awaiting the cessation of stroke, which would prove charge after explanations to the commandant. Colonel Krimnitz, of whose severity Carson felt no real fear, but if he tried to go away after running the guard he might be fired on as a spy making off with complete photographs. Altogether it was safest to alight, thought Carson, and he settled on the parade ground, greatly to the agitation of an awkward squad drilling under a sergeant, whose belated commands were cut short off by the whirl of the reverser of the Virginia's wing blades. He turned and saw the huge dragon fly with his bow rudder pointed at him like a great mandible.

The drill sergeant's expression carried conviction to the sergeant of the guard, where his description of a devil of a bird thing that you couldn't see at all till it struck the ground might not have been credited. The guard turned out and moved on the parade ground. The guard encountered a great silver winged insect with a snaz car amidships, her four braces sticking in the Bermuda grass like very short legs.

The guard halted at five paces, and he sergeant advanced, obtaining his first good look at Mr. Crashead, maintaining the attitude of military carriage with a stolidness perfectly statuesque. The sergeant, a little man with a red mustache turned up in a snarl, looked at him for half a minute and uttered a mysterious exclamation.

up a little when she nears shore. You'll make it, dear; you'll make it!"

Mrs. Graybill, standing on the shore, noted with the rest the new motion of the airship when the engines were stopped and wondered why it behaved so queerly.

And then Mrs. Graybill screamed. She had seen the man under the car deliberately let go his hold and drop into the water. The lighted car tilted slightly upward now as Virginia obeyed orders, soared slowly upward, rising a little as her momentum brought the great gliding surfaces against the air, and then, clearing the foam of the surf, she softly settled on the sand with her stern rudder, like the tail of a great dead bird, vanished by a miracle escaped. And rowing in from the offing where he had gone in his fishing boat in the wild and turbulent belief that he might help his master came Captain Harrod with a white faced young man lying in the bottom of the boat whose fingers dripped blood from the remorseless work of the file.

"Allow me to suggest," observed Crashead as the gentlemen of the party in Harrod's camp sat in lounging attitude on various articles used as chairs, mostly jettison and dross of the Gulf, "that in perfecting the first really practicable flying machine we have set in motion social and economic reactions that will go on and on far beyond the ken of those who, unlike myself, have not made a specialty of them. As that submarine dragged the Virginia out to sea yesterday we all thought it was the last of Carson, M. A., didn't we?"

Mr. Carson picked at his bandaged fingers, embarrassed.

"I didn't see much hope of escape," said he.

Breakfast was served. Mr. Waddy was upon tenterhooks until the Virginia had been explained to him, so a trip was arranged for Waddy, Crashead and Carson. They would fly down to Fort Morgan, thence to Palmetto Beach, get their mail and be back for dinner.

Mr. Waddy shied from the sea, but once in air he became intoxicated with enthusiasm. If his machine, said he, was so good that the aerostatic power people thought it good business to hire him to drop it and its inventor—he could not otherwise explain the horrible affair of yesterday—it was good enough to be hooked with all the Waddy money in all the eight banks.

The Virginia had alighted on the parade ground at Fort Morgan. The bamboo leaves fell outward, and she lay on an even keel. The aerostats invariably halted at the mooring ladder and received passes, but Mr. Waddy's declaration of feint was so absorbing and the speed of the Virginia so unwonted to her pilot that the fort had been spread beneath him like a map before he was aware of it. To alight might mean arrest, inquiry and discharge after explanations to the commandant. Colonel Krimnitz, of whose severity Carson felt no real fear, but if he tried to go away after running the guard he might be fired on as a spy making off with complete photographs. that the mixture which was the breath of life of the great engines was exhausted at last. Once, twice, thrice, came the halting in the machinery that was the death rattle of the motors.

"Virginia!" said he.

"Yes," she replied.

"Fix the gliding mechanism. The gas is done."

"Yes, Theodore."

"Turn her nose down a little. With momentum enough she'll make it from here. And when she gets within those breakers, if she is less than twenty-five feet high, tilt her up again a little. Do you understand?"

"Yes, I'll do it. Anything more, Theodore?"

PREPARATION FOR BATTLE

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE'S NEW CAMPAIGN BOOK.

IT COVERS WIDE LATITUDE.

Washington, Aug. 18.—The tariff and cost of living, Republican extravagance, Cannon and Cannonism, President Taft and his administration, publicity of campaign funds, merchant marine corporation and labor legislation—the foregoing are leading issues set forth in the new campaign book just issued by the Democratic congressional committee. A feature of the book is the annex, composed of copious quotations from Republican insurgent speeches which were delivered during the recent session of congress, and which are regarded as splendid Democratic campaign material by reason of the attacks which they made upon the tariff and the administration in power. Thirty-four pages of the book are taken up with extracts from these speeches. The leader is the tariff speech which Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, delivered in the senate on June 13 last, when he vigorously assailed the attitude of the administration with regard to the tariff, the alliance between President Taft and Senator Aldrich, the president's defense of the Aldrich-Payne law as the "best tariff law the country has ever seen," the jugglery of the sugar, cotton, woolen and other schedules in the interest of the trusts, and charged that the Republican framers of the tariff were in league with the "special interests" which are the particular beneficiaries of some of the scheduled duties costliest to the consumer.

The campaign book this year is made up entirely of extracts from the Congressional Record. There are 516 pages, all extracts from speeches made in congress, the meat of those speeches being extracted, the volume which is a handy pocket manual is well arranged and indexed.

The tariff and cost of living are given the first place in the book, as the tariff is considered the dominant issue, the speech of Champ Clark in the house of May 21 on the tariff heads the tariff section and therefore has the most conspicuous place in the text book it is quoted in its entirety and occupies 34 pages. Funds are by no means plentiful for the coming campaign, but the committee will be able to meet the expense of distributing the millions of pamphlets being sent to voters.

In the past campaign dodgers and pamphlets were sent out rather recklessly, hundreds of copies being showered upon "Sure" Democratic districts. This year the literature is being sent where it is needed most, and care is taken to send the right kind of literature to each district.

They Have a Definite Purpose.

Foley Kidney Pills give quick relief in cases of kidney and bladder ailments. Mrs. Rose Glaser, Terro Haute, Ind., tells the result in her case. "After suffering for many years from a serious case of kidney trouble and expending much money for so-called cures, I found Foley Kidney Pills the only medicine that gave me a permanent cure. I am again able to be up and attend to my work. I shall never hesitate to recommend them. Gilbert's Drug Store."

MY ACCOUNT.

When all the busy week is spent, and my allowance, every cent, I vanished, too.

I sit me down to calculate until my week's account is straight and settled rue.

Let's see—I had an even ten, and fifty cents, a dime and then a cent or two—

We'll call it just eleven, for those hateful fractions I abhor, and cannot do.

Now car fare, powdered and a pair of slippers and a braid of hair—

A perfect match—

And sundries I've forgotten now, but I must add them, anyhow, with all dispatch.

Eleven six—they make in all, and that is more, as I recall, than I possessed.

When I began the week, and still my purse contains a dollar bill—

Whence came the rest?

Oh, yes, I see; that makes it right. But here's a dime, escaped my sight! And now it's late!

So I'll just wait till some time when I may need an extra dime

To balance straight,

—Bertha Louise Ricketts in Smart Set.

"Pray, how?" "By paying him what I owe him."—Pittsburg Post.

Baton Rouge, La., Aug. 18.—The senate of the Louisiana assembly passed the special tax bond issue bill providing $6,500,000 for the Panama Exposition company of New Orleans. The bill now goes to the house, where assurances have been given of its passage next Friday. With popular subscriptions in New Orleans this will give the promoters of the exposition considerably more than $7,500,000 recommended by congress.

The Busher.

A busher is a baseball player from a small league. "From" is a highly important word in that sentence, as you will learn if you ever go into a small league and call a player a busher. In other words, the busher is not a busher so long as he remains at home; he gains the title when he begins to climb. Charles E. Von Loan contributes a story of an interesting "busher" to the first September number of the twice-monthly Popular Magazine. This particular "busher" is in the Big League, and Van Loan gives such a characteristic picture of him that the task of identifying him ought to be an easy one.

WARN SHIPPERS

DEMAND FOR FREIGHT CARS IS REPORTED.

Immediate Action Advised in Advance of the Fall Rush of Grain Traffic.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 18.—While many prominent officials individually are pleading poverty as an excuse for advancing freight rates, the volume of traffic throughout the country as indicated by the demand for freight cars, is increasing so rapidly that the American Railway association is already issuing a warning urging the roads and the shippers to do everything in their power to prevent a car shortage this fall. A warning is being circulated through the medium of the fortnightly bulletin of the committee on relations between railroads and shippers.

The committee recommends to the railroads that they urge the public to make all possible shipments immediately, says Mr. Hale in the bulletin, "while there is still a surplus of cars. If they will begin their fall shipments earlier than usual they will postpone to that extent the car shortage, which now seems inevitable."

The committee also reminds the railroads that the prompt handling of traffic and of empty cars will likewise do much to postpone the shortage. Of the 29,000 decrease in surplus 17,827 are box cars and 8,126 are coal cars. The beginning of the grain movement is said to be largely responsible for the quickened demand for box cars, the reports denote an important increase. With traffic equal to that of August, 1919, it is said that the present surplus should practically disappear by September 1.

WILL ANNEA COMEA.

The dispatches announce that the final negotiations for the annexation were begun yesterday by Lieutenant Viscount Terauchi, the Japanese resident-general in Korea.

It is believed that an early conclusion of the act of annexation may be expected. The Hochi Mainichi and other papers are issuing extra editions with the "Seoul" dispatches.

What Is an Equinox?

Parents, as well as teachers, have sometimes to run the gamut of awkward questions. "Father," said little Tommy one day, "what is an equinox?"

Father—"Why, er—it is when!

For goodness' sake, Tommy, don't you know anything about mythology at all? An equinox was a fabled animal—half horse, half cow. Its name is derived from the words "equine" and "ox." It does seem as if these public schools don't teach children anything nowadays."

This is perhaps equalled by the definition given by a proud father who derived the word equinox, "marvel" and "nox," "night," and called it "nightmare," which may have expressed his feelings fairly enough—September Strand Magazine.

Brakenman Is Hurt.

When a stake pole on a car loaded with lumber broke in the south yards of the Illinois Central railroad at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Joe Smith, a colored brakeman, was struck over the left eye by the pole and pitched headlong to the ground. He was picked up and placed aboard the first train for Paducah, arriving last night. His skull was not fractured but he is suffering from a dangerous scalp wound. He was taken to the Illinois Central railroad hospital.
